

Liam Clancy (metafeather)

I am an expert in HTML5 and the Web Platform, and since 1996 (28 years!) I have applied Design Management methods to the intersection of software engineering and creative design, and been a key contributor to startup successes; including 5yrs at Google DeepMind.

I am a design and software professional who excels at problem solving. With a strong technical and visual design background, a proven interest and ability to learn new skills, and able to communicate at all levels, I can own a product or lead a team to reliably deliver to business objectives in fluid or remote environments.

I have a positive and diligent attitude to tasks and prefer to work with ethical, progressive and innovative organisations, especially those trying to Solve intelligence. Use it to make the world a better place.

I am interested in substantive, design led products supporting research, data insights and the creation of extraordinary web applications for big data visualisation. My recent passion has been developing DX tools and interactive evaluation and safety metrics for machine learning models for use by research leadership.

As an experienced 'everything' engineer I have the ability to build many end-to-end systems: my focus is to place these in users' hands with no compromises.
